- Following the publication in the Peiping People's Daily on 24 November 1954 of the Chinese Communist People's Court decision sentencing the so-called American imperialist spies who intruded by plane into the China mainland, endangering national security, anti-American and hate-America propaganda increased.
- Between 25 and 28 November, in numerous theaters in Peiping, lantern slides displayed the following slogans:
 - The American spies John Thomas Donald¹ and John Knox Arnold are executioners who would slaughter people of our fatherland.
 - It is the sacred duty of every citizen to look for and to catch spies.
 - Punishing American imperialistic spies is to protect the security of the people of the fatherland.
 - Punishment of American imperialistic spies is the unanimous demand of our people.
 - Punishment of American spies is a great victory for the fatherland.
- Many anti-American cartoons were displayed on the streets. One caricatured the arrest of John Arnold, Commander 581 Air Supply and Communications Group, and his miserable life in jail.

- Comment. Both names were translated from Chinese characters seen on the screen. 25X1
